

He Lei, He Aloha

This is a Lei of Love,
the Legacies of Queen Lili'uokalani

Hawaii State Public Library System
2013-2014 Statewide Tour

In honor of the 100th Anniversary of the Hawaii State Library

He Lei, He Aloha, This is a Lei of Love, celebrates the enduring legacies of Queen Lili'uokalani – her music, love of homeland and complete dedication to the people of Hawaii. The Queen expressed her aloha through her actions and the examples she set.

Meleanna Aluli Meyer, artist, art-educator, filmmaker, and descendant of Emma Nawahi, confidante of Queen Lili'uokalani, will narrate this participatory program. This free 45-minute program includes community readings from the Queen's autobiography Hawaii's Story by Hawaii's Queen, a 7-minute vignette inspired by the Queen, and a sing-along of some of the Queen's music.

Sponsored by Native Books/Na Mea Hawaii, Queen Lili'uokalani Trust, Hui Hanai, Hawaiian Airlines, Alexander & Baldwin, King Kamehameha V Judiciary History Center, Pu'uhonua Society and the Iolani Guild of the Episcopal Church in Hawaii.

Appropriate for ages 12 and up. Schedule subject to change; please contact the library for more information or visit www.librarieshawaii.org. If a sign language interpreter or other special accommodation is needed, please contact the library 3 weeks prior to the event.
